

Special Note to Teens: Hanky Panky. We've had a report of teenagers being overly affectionate at the pool. As a courtesy to all the guests (and probably for health reasons), save that affection for a different place. If you have teenagers who visits the pool, share the message.

Pool Signs: New signs regarding keeping the gate closed have been placed on both sides of the gate. They are there to remind all members and guests that the gate needs to stay closed at all times, even during parties. unless entering or exiting. This is for our insurance.

Litter: When you leave the pool, look around for your trash and help get it in the trash bin. Napkins, Paper Towels, Nut Shells, Cups, and other small or easily wind-blown items are often found littering our pool.

Pool Parties: Available M-Th from 7-10pm. Free for groups smaller than 25 with refundable deposit. In an effort to make parties safer, there are some additional party rules taking affect this year: Max site capacity is 62 persons. A party must have a 1:12 lifeguard to party attendee ratio or better. Proof of lifeguard procurement required one week prior to party. Contact Heidi to schedule.

Life Guards for Hire: The Blach girls are available for lifeguarding parties. Call the Blach house at: 408-448-8631

Pool Rules Refreshed: The pool rules have been refreshed to include most recent changes— primarily regarding pool parties. The rules were attached in PDF format for those who receive their invoices via email. The rules have also been saved to: kirkwood-swimclub.weebly.com

Work Party Results: I'm always amazed at how much work gets done on work day and how quickly it gets done. The tables and chairs were all placed and washed with the umbrellas up within an hour. The rest of the time was spend sweeping, cleaning the BBQ, spot painting, maintaining signs, etc. Thanks to everyone who participated and for making the pool club a great place.
